t the Clarion,

GENA PITT: OWN DEVOTION

MISS C. CORINNE LESSEE.

CHAPTERXVII.

er-rules all mutinous accidents. nder his laws of fate and makes rviceable to his purpose.
HUTONINUS.

tiring disposition like Gena's specie was realized for the she could not keep from laughing at Hopkins, I will be pleased to remain a rich and unmarried? nosit of the widow and orphans of their ludicrous remarks.

steam could make go such a long mess General Elley, formerly of the Consequence as these cars be," said Mr. Cross, in federate army, has purchased a tract of land near Jessop's Cut, in Anne to a New Englander.

"Land o' Liberty, you ain't the first pay you anything they say?"

"Land o' Liberty, you ain't the first pay you anything they say?"

Polly turned quickly towards full glad to her and staring at him, said sharply to a New Englander.

"You critter, who asked you to honse."

"I spects Miss Jossy Fin, you hev steam cars?" said Polly: "O ves," replied Gena, smiling.

all the charitynistics av one, haint you o'speculating with to be an anetress, never mind, here is the number she "Yes, I was raised in Mississippi," answered Gens, quite amused. aroused, she hated the negro race; * I've cum."

FATAL Accident.-We regret to was almost a reverence for the entire must make herself feel perfectly at when Gena heard that he was going Henry Nabring.) learn that Mr. Pinekney L. Alcorn, of South.

Bolivar Township, was last Sunday | When Gena informed Polly of her thrown from his horse, and instantly nativity, she immediately expressed great love for her, and said ; "Lar, how proud I'm on your com-

> Polly sought every opportunity to render Gena some service. She insisted upon asking various questions in relation to the South, which Gena cheerfully answered, sometimes laughing heartily at the erroneous ideas of her rude, but kind hearted friend: Jonas B. Washington, Virginia; all Mr. Cross was evidently a quiet man, under the thirteenth exception, the and desired to please his sister in law, who treated the great burly farmer, as though he was a boy who sometimes fixings." deserved a good spanking. Occasionally he would venture to make a remark but in such an humble way as one

ly reported ashore on Body Island, to the rinanno, well she married as Souththe northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, will prove a crn chap, what owned a great drove the northward of Hatteras, which was a constant of the northward of Hatteras, which was a constant of the northward of Hatteras, which was a constant of the northward of Hatteras, which was a constant of the northward of th she comed up to make her old Dad a addressed Mr. N. on the important visit. See she has how the slaves were business which brought her to his city:

Stands own children a large set of the company of th visit. See she "as how the slaves were Satan's own children, a lazy set, eating holy cake and stealing whatever they could." See she, "the South and, Ohio, the other day, a newspanad, Ohio, the other day, a new land, Ohio, the other day, a newspa- was tu make war on us I'm not tu hev seed a show what cumed to our per editor found an infant left at his blame, I hope they won't fight me nor town last summer. I then knowed I door in a basket. With it came this my relations. I've know'd fur sum could hact as well as the gal who done J. A. note, showing that the mother thought time that a combusulation would be the love-sick part, and I've tak lessons the upshot ov all this political agva the heft o' the winter.

Polly stopped just as Mr. Cross reeditorial indorsement. It is a man-turned to his seat, saying cheerfully. "Wall, gals, I've just spoke tu that man over there, who says at the next city we get our dinner. I really want > sum grub. "Ha, ha; why bruther-in-law it's curius tu see how vulgar you be getting,' said Polly, laughing loudly. "Wall, of I be vulgar, you'r the vulgarest tu larf like a horse, he, hi, Iv'e fetched up to you-but Miss Jones. you must hev something tu eat, and that man says we stop twenty minutes besides the two abutments. It will to the next city where the folks give not be completed before the 1st of us a dinner. March next, but when finished will be "You don't say so, bruther-in-law. one of the finest bridges of the kind to Lor, Miss Jossy Fin, let us 'veil ourselves of this chance, when I gets a thing fur nuthin, I generally du take

"I think that Mr. Cross'is mistaken in regard to the dinner, it is not really given to us, we pay one dollar, and in return we have a very nice dinner."

"Lor sakes, you fool Cross, jest see what an hignorant critter you be, why a man ought to 'o know'd how it was Thus the time was passed. Miss wthem lich resulted as above stated Steele was tried before a committing Hopkins' incessant talking kept Gena Ourt and acquitted. Houston Record from thinking over the past, and worgying about the future, yet at times stage, and excel yourself, in Yankee her painful position would recur to court and acquitted.-Houston Record from thinking over the past, and worwhose life has passed its meridian, her, filling her with dread and sor-thus eloqueutly discourses upon the row, then her sweet face looked sad, come to New York, and also of his in-Forty years once seemed along and were heavy and filled with tears. "Why, my dear clastened steps and hopes rish on me, she will not be able to find Mr. troduce you to her."

oward the twilight where the sters Morse, as no one honors him, and then Mr. N. introduced Mr. S. to Mr.

York to find me."

fears about Lucy being lost. town it is, ain't it Mr. S?"

Some hours before they arrived in "Yes it is quite a large town," said New York, Polly asked Gena when Mr. S., laughing in spite of his effort she said. HUTOMINUS. cost you one cent o' money—she lives towns; how would you like to go with was conscious of being in in a big house, awful fine, so she sez, I blue; you must learn the business be-of attraction. This to a refined always makes a splurge." for money, tiring disposition like Gena's, Gena thought of her lonely position, expenses F' few days with you, and trust I shall "Polly cant you do something bet "Wall, now, who'd a thought that not make your cousin any trouble."

rid lots o'times on the locomotion Mrs .--- , said that you were going on hev always knowed I could be a hac-

Twe ben wanting to ask you ef you I've sort o'thought ov play hacting, she lives ever so far from here on 40 be a Southern gal. I must say you hev I've gut lots o'savins that I intended street, and the number is-is-but I ve gut the capambilities for a great show woman. I've writ a heft o've a loosened the ribbon strings of her bag, month back to the biggest theatre in New York, and they writ no to construct the condenser, as desired.

A PORTABLE PRESS is a foresaid estate are hereby notified to file them day probated with the Clerk of said court on or before the third Monday in March A. D. 1807, or they will be barred.

New York, and they writ no to construct the condenser, as desired.

A PORTABLE PRESS is a foresaid estate are hereby notified to file them day probated with the Clerk of said court on or before the third Monday in March A. D. 1807, or they will be barred. Polly's curiosity was now fully New York, and they writ me tu cum, drew forth a small piece of paper, and Aprillo wom her admiration for Southern people see her friends, and told Gena that she The next day Mr. S. called and addition to the "ancient list of ca, summoned here by the illness of curiosities at Barnum's;" it consider. Louis bitt was a native of Tennessee and active in that state after the Seminole war, in which he was a volunteer. He was the larguage he nsed to express his mee's thoughts.

The news from the seat of war in Candia is important. In the recent engagement between the revolutionary.

The news from the seat of war in Candia is important. In the recent engagement between the revolutionary with war in the Candia is important. In the recent engagement between the revolutionary with present death, we should now be without slaves, "said Gena.

The news from the seat of war in Candia is important. In the recent engagement between the revolutionary with the was not quite a litting hough the was a way to consecute the leads and the recent of the Candia is important. In the recent engagement between the revolutionary with the was not quite a litting hough the was not put to a layer, "said Gena.

"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves," said Gena.
"Why, yo course, they left som or can be without slaves, said in the South, and have for her can be seen that the state of the war and was tuneed be level as the said of the without slaves, said in the South, and have for her can be seen that the said such as a section of the Court of the Court of the Court of the Court of the Cour would think that he had stolen the ably more than covered her head. This of her abilities for an Actress, at once

Mr. N. now finding a chance to speak said, and when du ye show?" "I think that you misunderstood the you," said Mr. N. smiling. "Lor sakes, what am I herrin here, I been treated like a cannibal?"

"Allow me to speak, and no doubt I can explain everything to you;" said a fool ov.

Mr. N. felt convinced a letter had been sent to Polly by his agent, holding out inducements to make her undertake a journey to New York. He knew this to be wrong, and in some way he desired to aid Miss Hopkins; he instantly thought of Mr. S., a traveling manager who was then in the lobby of the theatre. "Miss Hopkins, do not give yourself any uneasiness; I will see that you phis, Tenn. have an engagement to play on the stage,"—he asked to be excused, and nished at the lowest rates. Liberal Cash Ad

Mr. N. then told him how Polly had so such a place as "Maple Cottage." I herself up and down speaking very

. "I am glad to see you. This is my This conclusion quieted Gena's first visit here; what an awful large

"Miss Hopkins, Mr. S. has a com-"Ef, ye'll cam to my cousin's hum pany who is traveling through the you are welcome to do so, it shan't country playing in small cities and with those who were the haven't been there, but I know'd she fore you can engage yourself to play for money, but Mr. S. will pay all your exceedingly annoying, and yet she and keenly feeling the need of some one to assist her in finding Lucy, she not help speaking; he was even sub-inder their protection. Still at times ter with your money, them folks won't "Land o' Liberty, you ain't the first pay you anything they say?" Polly turned quickly towards him

"You critter, who asked you to open "I think, said Gens, that your friend your mouth; I've my own way, and I tress. Mr. 8. I will go with you; I'm "Lar, did the critter tell you that - stayin at Mrs. Charles Edwards Flarts. handed to Mr. S., who read it

Her bonnet would have been a good husband were on their way to Ameri-

TO BE CONTINUED.

J. A. BRASELMAN & CO.,

86 & 588 MAGAZINE STREET (Corner St. Andrew street,) NEW OBLEANS. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS

In Foreign and Domestic DRY GOOD.

cum, and I cumed. I'm ready to go to work, how much will you give me and when du ye show?"

"I think that you misunderstood the tention will be given.

Possess peculiar facilities for buying Goods cheap, which enables them to sell Briow Marker Pricess.

N.B.—Orders solicited, to which special attention will be given.

MACHINERY.

THE undersigned are prepared to fill orders for all kinds of Machinery, to be had in this or the Northern markets, on the most rea-sonable terms. Special attention given to Plantation Machinery. Beiting, &c. We have on hand a number of E. CARVER'S COTTON GINS, 84 00 per Saw; also the Improved Cotton sin, $5 00 per Saw. KNIGHT & CO., 170 and 172 Gravier Street, New ORLKANS.

ROSSET BLACK, late Black & Pittman, Z N. Retris-late Revion, Estes & Co. Black, Estes & Co.,

essors to Horton, Estes & Co. COTTON FACTORS and COMMISSION Merchants, Office-Nos. 1 and 2 Mostry and Hunt's Block, No. 304 Front street, Rensreactions made on Cotton in store

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, HINDS COUNTY, First District, October 1st, 1866. W. J. Bracy, et al., | At rules in Chan

John Robb, Ad., et al.)

A true copy from the enhances.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

TRUSTER'S SALE.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, quirsuant to the provisions of a Deed of Trust, make by Charter E Hocker for the benefit of Was A. I. I. Action here were the three for the benefit of Was A. I. I. I. Action here were the first of the principal sum of $4000 and number seed for the principal sum of $4000 and number seed for the principal sum of $4000 and $4000 a

WHEREAS, by an order and decree of the Probate Court of Newton County, made in the March term 1866, thereof, the estate of B.R. Dyess, deceased, was declared in solvent and insufficient to satisfy the claims exhibited against and estate. Now, there fore, all persons holding claims against the aforesaid estate are hereby notified to file them any others now in the condensor, as desired.

A PORTABLES PRESS
By an order and decree of the manufacture of B.R.A.N.D.Y. IRISH WHISKY and OLD BOLRBON. These receipts are not new no humbur. They are need by all the leading eather the same article you can easily make yourself. The liquors fore, all persons holding claims against the aforesaid estate are hereby notified to file them and by moderated with the Gira, on the Level manufacture of B.R.A.N.D.Y. IRISH WHISKY and OLD BOLRBON. These receipts are not new no humbur. They are need by all the leading eather to you can easily make yourself. The liquors are made by my time of your own no sant save your meanly price in the three, the same amount of power, without the Condensor, as desired.

A PORTABLES PRESS

Circuit Court, First District, June Term, 1866. S. S. Granberry ... Attachment for $575 00.100;

In the Probate Court of said Covington County, my office in Williams August, A. D., 1866.

A. J. THOMPSON,
A. J. THOMPSON,

To the unknown heirs of James L. C. The many different control of Thomas Underwood decreased:

You are hereby cited to be, and personally appear before the Honorable Probatic Court of Jasper county, State aforesaid, on the list Monday in October next, then and there to show cause, if any you can, why the lands, tenements and hereditaments of the said Thos, Underwood, described in the petition of Saunce B. Underwood, described in the petition of Saunce B. Underwood, administrator of said estate, should not be said, as prayed for in said petition, to pay the debts of said decedent.

Given unit r by hand and seal of office of the said that of said decedent.

Given unit r by hand and seal of office of the said that of said decedent.

Given unit r by hand and seal of office of the said that of said excelents.

Given unit r by hand and seal of office of the said that of said excelents.

Given unit r by hand and seal of office of the said that dispersions are said to said who need it, the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said supplied to the said that the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said supplied to the said that the receipt and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said supplied to the said that the receipt and directions for making the remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said that the receipt and directions for making the remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said the said that the receipt and directions for making the remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the said th

NEWTON COUNTY.

J. A. WARE, Clerk sepillate.

WHEREAS, Letters of Administration on the Estate of Amos Moore, derected, were granted to the undersigned, at the July Term, A. D., 1806, of the Probate Court of Newton county, Mississipple, now all persons having claims against Decedent, see notified to present them, duty probated, within the time limited by law, or they will be forever barred.

P. E. THORNTON, Adm'rs, J. J. THORNTOR, anglow hand.

They are chesper and more convenient than any other, as they can be moved at pleasure from one plantation to another.

A 70 saw Gin complete, with Condenser and Press, can be delivered at any point for about some; a 50 saw Gin for about $600.

These Gins vary from 20 to 100 saws, and according to capacity, are fully warranted to turn out from 2 to 10 bales per day.

For further particulars address,
MORTIMER & BAKER, Agents,
Crystal Aprings, Miss Eff-Agents to sell, wanted throughout the sopti9win

The next day Polly Ann and Mr. Cross called upon Manager N.—, and Gena called at the hotel where she had greated at the feature at the feature at the feature at she greated with Camer, Sersinia, Gotter, Wansberger, greated at

E M BEE, DANIEL M POUND, J W DEMERIST, W C CURTHYER, J C COOS, A HILLER, A H PREWITT, H GOTTIG, S W BAIN, THOS MAUDAN, H BRUNING

A. J. THOMPSON,
Probate Clerk
Covington county, Miss.

It is, therefore, ordered that she shall enter ther appearance in this cause, and plead, answer or denuir, on the first MONDAY of December, 1806, that being the first day of the Notice is therefore given to the said Defendant, that unless she do personally appear at the next Term of our Chancery Court, to be held in the town of Decatur, on the second Monday of obtober next, and plead, answer or demure to Complainant's Bill, the allegations therein will be taken as confessed Witness my hand and seal of office, Witness my hand and seal of office, L.S. July 28, 1826.

L.A. WARE.

set Assesse Internal Revenue.

AT LAW.

To fravid W. Moore, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Levi Moore, dec'd:

YOU are hereby notified to be, and personJasper county, State of Mississippi, to be held at the Court House, in the town of Pauliling, on the 1st Monday in October next, then and there to answer the petition of Many E.
Leightwy and Joseph R. Leightwy, for prointer of ecrisin instruments of writing purporting to be the last will and testament of Levi Moore, deceased.

Given under my hand and seal of ofin the fight in the levi Moore, deceased.

Levi Moore, deceased.

Given under my hand and seal of oflevi Moore, deceased.

Levi Moore, deceased.

Clerk.

Ang. JAS. U. MCCORMICK.

Ang. Liver, Spicen and Knineys, Dropsy, Asthma, Serotin and Tetler, Cuerins derangements &c. Person residing at the great a distance to consult him in person, can do so by tentral control of the last of the

AND though he has many foolish ways, he will etimble on good things recusionally. For instance he has everything that is good and healthy in est, and Lime till you can't rest.

ES Receiving FRESH MEAL every week.

sept. HEXMINIST.

the arts, and you may from them the same arti-cle you can easily make yourself. The liquor-are made by mixistre—no apparatus required Buy the recipes for your own use and save you mency. Price 50 cents each, or $1 for the three R. A. COLWELL, septIdIw&w3m. Allentown, Ps.

For Rent Very Low, THE entire premises of Shady Grove Seminary; including one hundred acres of open land; buildings and furniture suitable for a boarding school; good well and spring water; situated ten miles east of Philadelphia, Neshoba county.

For particulars, address Marg't Alderma a care of Dr. Fuito Meridian, Muss aug@cw4

Male and Female Academy
This institution, situated in kankin county, six miles from Jackson, eight from Byrau Station, and twelve from Branden, in an excellent neighborhood, thus being free from the deleterious influences of villages and towns on youths, and being a healthy location, together with a splendid Academic building,
de., offers superior inducements.
It is supplied with competent and capable male and remale teachers.
Music and the higher branches will be taught.

The great object will be thoroughness in fine at 1 training and practical sility.

The Fall Session will commence September

1, 1996. Boarding can be procured at the Institution. or in the neighborhood.

For further particulars, address Principal, at Jackson.

H. B. WILLIAMS, Principal, ENTERPRISE PEMALE COLLEGE. TMIRE RESET PRIMARY CONTROL OF THE STATE OF

TRUMS OF TUTTION—One-half in advance—the balance 15th February Special arrangements can be made by consultation:

Primary Department, per menth. eparatory liege Classes, (embracing Ancient Languages, per menth, 6 50 Modern Languages, French, per month, 5 00 Music, (with use of Instrument) pr month, 6 00 Ornamental—embracing Psinting, Drawing, Penmanship and Embroidery, 6 00 Peof. E. A. Priffenschlerer, one of the most

ing. Penmanship and Embreddery. 6 00
Prof. F. A. Pfaffenschieger, one of the most a compilished artists in the country, will fill this department.
Incidental expenses per session. $1.50
Pupils can enter the College at any time during the session, and will be charged from the time of outrance.

Board, $30 per month. Each bearder must furnish their own bed linen. Lights and washing extra. Heard can be had in the President's, and private families.

For further details, write to the President.

REV. J. W. HARMON,
augifawter2.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPL

JASPER COUNTY. Probate Court, August Term, 1866.

To Nancy Wilson, Polly Ann Snell and James M. Snell, her husband, and all others interested in the Estate of Isaac Downs, deceased:

Voll are hereby cited to be, and personally appear before the Honorable Probate Court of said county, on the 1st Monday in October next, then and there to show cause, if any you can, why the letters of James M. Rambo, administrator of said estate, should not be surrendered; and further to show cause, if any you can, why the final secount of said administrator, now on the in said Court, should not be allowed, &c.

Given under my hand and seal of off.
1.5. fice, the 17th day of August, A. D., 1866. JAS. C. McCORMICE.

aug 25w3t. Cerk. Probate Court, August Term, 1866.

By virtue, and in pursuance of a decree of the Probate Court of Jasper county, Miss, made at the December Term, A. D., 1866, theres of, the undersigned, administrators of the Estate of Littleton Jones, deceased, will, on the 4th Monday of September next, between the hours prescribed by law, proceed to sell at the Court House door, in the town of Paubiling, and at public auction, to the highest hidder for CASH, all that certain tract of land situate it said Jasper county, belonging to deceased, and described as follows, to wit:

Wijs, section 1, T.3, R. 11 E, (except S.E3, of S.Wig, and S.P.S., Section 1, T.3, R.11 E, The Wig, N. Wijs, Sec.6, T.3, E.P.E., and the S.E., of S.Wig, and Wijs of S.EM, Sec.5, T. 4, R.11 E; a large perition of said lands being now in a high state of cultivation.

JAMES L. THAGARD, Admin's August 28, A. D., PS66.—wit. administrator's Sale.

PORT GIRSON COLLEGIATE ACADEMY. A College for Young Ladles.

WITH A PREPARATORY AND PRI-mary School. In successful operation for Thirty-Eight years. PACCETYL A. J. WRIGHT, A. M., President of Faculty, Mrs. A. A. WRIGHT, Principal, Rev. JNO. A. B. JONES.

Rearders are under special charge of the Lady Principal. They furnish their swn bed-ciothing. English tuition, with board, 880 per quar-

D. D. HUMPHREYS, President Board of suplenty.

Rev. CORYDON CHAMBERLAIN.
Mrs. MARIE M. DWIGHT,
Miss ANNA M. ROSS.
Miss MARIE M. DWIGHT. ter, payable in silvance.
For circulars and particulars, apply to Albert Sidney Johnston. Arundel county, Md., on which he is creeting a handsome residence.

SHOOTING AFFAIR -- We understand that on last Friday a difficulty oc-Mr. William Wells in the North-eastern part of Panola, which resulted in Mr. Holland being mortally wounded.

Gov. Patton stated in his speech on Saturday last, says the Huntsville Independent, that he had made arrangenents with Gen. Swyne to continue the issue of rations to the most destitute in the State. The rations are to be in corn, and bacon.

killed. The unfortunate young gentleman was on his way to church at the time of the accident.-Pine Bluff pany. Ark. Vindicator. The following persons have been pardoned by the President since the 1st inst : Wm. J. Brownwell, Virginia; W. H. Chase, Louisiana; R. D. Bacot and W. S. Martin, South Carolina; and $20,000 clause of the amnesty procla-Gen. M. Whitt Smith died at Lake City, Fla., on the 31st of August. He was a native of Tennessee and settled in that state after the Seminole war, in total loss. A portion of her cargo will be saved in a badly damaged condition .- N. O. Times.

well of newspaper men: "MR. STRANGER LOCAL-I send you tioning. an item. You are at liberty to give it taught to be an editor. MAGDALEN." THE BRIDGE AT JOHNSONOILLE .-The work on the large railroad drawbridge over the Tennessee river at Johnsonville is progressing rapidly.— Two of the remaining cribs were to have been sunk yesterday. The bridge is 1,500 feet in length and has eight piers, including the turn-table, be found mywhere. FATAL RENCONTRE.-Last Tuesday evening a fatal affray occurred in this town between Geo. Steele and Pendleton Knox in which the latter was instantly killed. Both had been brave and faithful soldiers in the Confeder said Gena. ate army, belonging to the same comcany, and were on the most friendly terms, until last Tuesday evening or course we pay fur our dinner, you when book being under the influence of a man ought to oknow'd how it was liquor, a difficulty sprung up between dun."

speedy flight of time:

Forty years once seemed along and seems but a step and yet slong now ay are broken shrines, where a the integral to be a step and yet slong the papers in the case, and it which we the integral to be a step and yet slong the papers in the case, and it which we the suspension of grass is first mot forget. We fill garner the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and with suspension for the sunshine of those years, and hopes the sunshine of those years, and hopes the sunshine of those years, and hopes the sunshine of those years, and with such a step and support sunshine of those years, and the dreamy eyes, so full of softness, therefore years and the with tears were heavy and filled with tears. "Why, my dear sir," said Mr. S. "Why, my dear sir, said Mr. S. "Why, my dear sir, said Mr. S. "Why, my dear sir, said Mr. S. "Why, my dear sir she was going to stop, and learning to remain quiet that she intended to stop at the hotel. Mr. N. toraed to Polly and said:

the stage."

quarreling with all her neighbors upon this subject, she was loud in her belief that every son and daughter of Ham should be kept in bondage, but the subject of the subject of the subject of a lady. Her house was nearly furnished. She appeared very happy to fortune to Gena.

Institled to Mr. S., who read it.

"Very well, Miss Hopkins, I shall call on you to morrow."

Polly hastened home to tell her good fortune to Gena.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, call on you to morrow."

Polly hastened home to tell her good fortune to Gena.

S. S. Granberry, 1866.

"I believe my stage-manager an swered your letter? "Why to be sure he did, sez he, letter which my stage-manager sent

"Well, go on, I'm not tu bee made went to Mr. 8-"My dear friend, I believe that you oward the twilight where the sters Morse, as no one honors him, and then Mr. N. introduced Mr. S. to Mr. W.D. CHAPMAN, Clerk. Lucy does not know that there is Cross and these to Polly, who bobbed column L. A. LANDSEY, D. C.

To Elizabeth Berry, and her husband, James D. Berry, and J. A. Wilks of Texas, and B.J. R. QUIN, Eliza A. Terrell, of Apkansas:

W Texas, and J. A. Wilks of Texas, and B.J. R. QUIN, Jas Wilson, Eliza A. Terrell of Apkansas:

W Texas, and J. A. Wilks of Texas, and B.J. R. QUIN, Jas Wilson, Jas Wilson, Jas Wilson, Jas Wilson, Sam Newman, alignwing.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI,

JASPER COUNTY.

Probate Court, August Term, A. D., 1866.
To the unknown heirs of Robert S. Underwood, and all other persons interested in the Estate of Thomas Underwood, diversible of the Markov Mark Term, 1866.

Henry Hollingsworth,

Sarah A. J. Hollingsworth,

U PON opening the Complainant's Bill in the above stated case, it appears to the satisfaction of the register, that Sarah A. J. Hollingsworth, that miless she do personally appear at the sext Term of our Chancery Conf. table.

TO C. E. JOHNSON, of the State of Texas:

You are effect to appear before the Prohate Court of the county of Newton, State of Miss., on the Third MONDAY of November etc., it is shown cause why the final account of R. P. JONES, executor of the last will and testiment of W. W. JOHNSON, decreased, now on file in this office should not be allowed, etc.

By order of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

oct. With the Court of the State of Texas:

You are effect to appear before the Prohate Court of the county of Newton, State of Miss., on the Third MONDAY of November etc., it is show cause why the final account of R. P. JONES, executor of the last will and testiment of W. W. JOHNSON, decreased, now on file in this office should not be allowed, etc.

By order of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

September of the Court of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

September of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

September of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

September of the Court, the 3d Monday in Suptember, A. D. 1896.

September of the Court of the State of Texas:

You are effect to appear before the Prohate Court of the county of Newton, State of Miss., on the Third MONDAY of Newtons and State of Texas:

You are effect to appear before the Prohate Court of the county of the state of Texas:

A. J. Hollingsworth, J. John September of the county of the second of the state of Texas:

You are effect to appear before the Prohate Court of the county of Newton Miss.

To Allo September of the county of the state of Texas:

You are effect to appear to the state of Texas:

A. J. Hollingsworth, J. John September of the county of the state of Texas:

A. J. Ho

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR